SYLLABUS
AEC-300 – EQUINE LAW
Spring 2009

Professor: Walter S. Robertson II
Stites & Harbison, PLLC
250 West Main Street, Suite 2300
Lexington, Kentucky 40507
859-226-2354 (direct phone)
859-425-7978 (direct fax)
wrobertson@stites.com

Assistant: Connie Dishong
859-226-2312 (direct phone)
ccdishong@stites.com

Office hours: By appointment. Students are encouraged to call or e-mail me with questions, concerns or comments. In addition, I will make every effort to be available a few minutes prior to each class and following each class.

Reading Materials: Materials are available for copy at Johnny Print. Various additional materials will be emailed or hand delivered during class as needed.

Class Schedule: Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., Room N-12, Ag North Building

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory. Following any student's second unexcused absence, such student's final grade will be reduced by 5% for each additional unexcused absence. Students will be responsible for signing the roll sheet each day at the beginning of class. It is the student's sole responsibility to sign the roll and should the student fail to sign the roll for any reason, such student will be marked absent. Excused absences will be awarded only in accordance with University guidelines.

Class Participation/Quizzes: Students are expected to attend class prepared to discuss the reading assignments. Students will be called upon at random to discuss reading assignments. In addition, short, unscheduled quizzes may be given during the semester at random which will amount to 5% of the final grade. Class Participation will account for 5% of the final grade.
Learning Outcomes: Students will be able to identify the basic legal principles in contract law, the Commerce Clause, and negligence; summarize the difference between trespass and nuisance in property law; describe how equine liability statutes apply in Kentucky; and be able to identify the essential elements of boarding agreements, contract sales v. auction sales, and the case law for sale fraud. Upon completion of the course, students are not expected to be ready to practice law or be experts in the study of law, but are expected to be able to recognize situations whereby a lawyer is or should be needed.

Grading: Grades will be based on a 100 point scale.

Mid-Term Exam: The Mid-Term Exam will be a closed book, in class exam given pursuant to the schedule. Professor reserves the right to change the exam to be conducted at home based on course requirements or at a different time than is set forth on the schedule.

Final Exam: The Final Exam will be a comprehensive exam delivered in accordance with University Policy and at times allotted by the University during Finals Week or at the discretion of Professor, may be a take home exam.

Short Paper: There will be a short paper (3-5 typed pages) based on a current topic of the class, which will be delivered following the Mid-Term. Guidelines for topic selection and format will be given to students prior to the Mid-Term.

Academic Integrity: Scholastic dishonesty is not tolerated. Forms of scholastic dishonesty include, but are not limited to: plagiarism, utilization of unauthorized materials during academic evaluations, and giving or receiving unauthorized assistance during examinations. You may also want to read the paper, "Plagiarism: What is it?" on the website for the Academic Ombud (www.uky.edu/Ombud). Penalties for academic dishonesty vary depending on the severity of the offense and any previous offenses. The minimum penalty for a first offense is a zero on the assignment in question. Depending on the severity of the infraction, an assignment of extra course work, a course grade reduction, or the assignment of an E or XE grade for the course may be imposed. For further information and details, see Part II, Section 6.3.0 of “The Code of Student Conduct” which can be viewed online at www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/part2.html

Special Notice:

1. Scheduled Readings – Students must be aware that for various reasons class topics, lectures and discussions may not fall on exact syllabus date and student is responsible for tracking class progress and being prepared for class. The reading materials may be altered, deleted, added or changed at the discretion of Professor. Students will be given timely notice of changes in the lecture schedule or reading materials via in-class announcements and/or email.

2. Teachable Moments – Professor reserves right to digress from schedule for special topic or subject for discussion that he feels, in his sole discretion, will illustrate a specific point of view or add to the students’ overall education regarding equine law.
